Complete Guide to Planning Your Trip to Disneyland Paris

There will be a Mickey RFID reader. Picture Courtesy of Disney Parks Blog Step 1: You will want to register online to make a reservation in advance. Another option for booking is the Frozen Sing-Along, but this is really only necessary if you're traveling with a die-hard frozen fanatic and want to absolutely guarantee a seat for the show. It's so hard to pick a favorite out of the Disney World Parks, but needless to say, Hollywood Studios is a must visit with exciting rides like The Twilight Zone Tower of Terror and Rockeroller Coaster to get your adrenaline pumping. Once you choose your rides and book them, the information will be stored on the My Disney Experience profile on your entry tickets or on your Magicbands. We recommend them to anyone with kiddos to keep up after. There are four of these kiosk locations in Hollywood Studios; outside the Twilight Zone Tower of Terror, at the corner of Hollywood and Sunset Boulevard where you will also see a wait times board, outside of Toy Story Midway Mania, and in front of Muppet Vision 3D. Do you have a Fastpass Plan? If you need help planning and booking your magical Walt Disney World vacation, contact our friends at ATInk's Magical Vacations. The next step is to get to the parks about 30 minutes before opening. For little princesses, the Frozen show and Beauty and the Beast live also make this park well worth a visit. We imagine Rise of the Resistance will be added to this list but as of now, there is a different boarding procedure (we will discuss at the end of the article) Slinky Dog Dash to Millennium Falcon: Smugglers Run - New for 2020! Mickey & Minnie's Runaway Railway eAAA New for 2020! These are pretty much all brand new rides with the oldest being Slinky Dog Dash which opened in 2018! In my personal opinion, Slinky Dog Dash is the best bet as it typically has the longest line between Millennium Falcon and itself.
