[2] [3] The next day, two interactive people established the 2K publishing label, which consists ³ Submarques 2K games and 2K sports, with the latter focusing on sports games. [4] [5] [6] Several of the IT to Two Two development studios, visual concepts, Kush games, Indie ³ games, poison games, POPTOP software and Frog City software, were converted into 2k studios, and merged into two licenses on the new label. [7] On January 21, 2006, a fire gaveÃ±Ã³ a lot of management ³ and marketing portions of 2k offices. [8] In June 2007, 2k anunciÃ³ had closed its offices in New York City and moved to a new location ³ the West Coast, namely Novato, California. [9] On September 10, 2007, Take-Two's two interactive games announced that they had struck a partnership ³ with Nickelodeon in the publishing games ³ based on â â â their licenses. [10] Along with this announcement, Take-Two Interactive presentedÃ³ a third 2K label, 2K Play, to focus on casual games. [11] Through this opening, 2k absorbed all the assets of Tay-Dos Interactive's Global Star Global Star software, including Carnival Game, The Studio Cat Daddy Games and games based â â on the deal or no deal. [12] In 2013, 2K obtained the rights to publish video games based on "" "" the professional wrestling company, WWE.
